Pronouns & Possessive Adjectives (2) and Possessive 's

- To show that something belongs to somebody , we usually add 's to a singular noun and an apostrophe ' to a plural noun:
e.g. the girl's room (one girl)
 the girls' room (two or more girls)
- For nouns that have irregular plural forms without s or es (e.g. man ⇨ men), we usually add 's to the plural form of these nouns to show possession:
e.g. my child's room ⇨ my children's room
- For names end with 's', we add 's or simply an apostrophe ' to indicate their possession:
e.g. Thomas's toys or Thomas' toys

A. Change the underlined nouns to plural nouns for the possessive.
