

Primary Three English – Unseen Dictation

Ann's busy week

Ann wakes up at eight forty-five today. Ann and her mum go to the supermarket to buy milk and sugar. Ann is baking cookies with her mum in the kitchen now. The cookies smell so good in the oven. Ann tastes one after it cools down. It is so delicious. Ann shares the cookies with her grandparents and cousins. They all like them.

On weekdays, Ann usually does homework and plays the piano in the morning. In the afternoon, she can read, skip or watch television. On Saturdays, Ann's family go cycling or hiking in the country parks.
